RUDY, EXELROD, ZIEFF & LOWE, L.L.P.

COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

The founders of a red-hot technology startup named Tinder engaged in atrocious sexual harassment and sex discrimination against Whitney Wolfe, the young woman who cofounded Tinder and was the face of Tinder in magazines and in Tinder's efforts to market the company to other young women. Tinder's Chief Marketing Officer Justin Mateen repeatedly called Ms. Wolfe a "whore," including in front of CEO Sean Rad, and he told Ms. Wolfe that he was taking away her "Co-Founder" title because having a young female co-founder "makes the

///

28

1

2

3

DAVID A. LOWE (SBN: 178811) JOHN T. MULLAN (SBN: 221149)

351 California Street, Suite 700 San Francisco, CA 94104 Telephone: (415) 434-9800

MICHELLE G. LEE (SBN: 266167)

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

24

25

26

27

28

- 2. Mr. Mateen and Mr. Rad subjected Ms. Wolfe to a barrage of horrendously sexist, racist, and otherwise inappropriate comments, emails and text messages, including describing one person as a "liberal lying desperate slut" and others as "middle age Muslim pigs" and referring, for example, to "fucking" the wife of a prominent blogger, and a text depicting IAC Chairman Barry Diller as a penis. Although it is tempting to describe the conduct of Tinder's senior executives as "frat-like," it was in fact much worse- representing the worst of the misogynist, alpha-male stereotype too often associated with technology startups.
- 3. Although Ms. Wolfe repeatedly complained to CEO Rad, he ignored her complaints, dismissing her as "annoying" and "dramatic," and threatened her job. Ms. Wolfe finally broke down the night that Mr. Mateen called her a "whore" at a company event, and she offered to resign in consideration for modest severance and the vesting of her stock. Mr. Rad snidely rejected the offer and fired her.

PARTIES

- 4. Plaintiff is a resident of the County of Los Angeles, State of California. During the entire period of time at issue in this lawsuit, Plaintiff resided in Los Angeles County, in the State of California. She worked for Defendants in Los Angeles County, California throughout her employment.
- 5. Tinder is a corporation headquartered and doing business in the State of California County of Los Angeles.
- Match.com is a corporation doing business in the State of California County, with 6. offices in West Hollywood, County of Los Angeles.
- 7. IAC, Inc. is a corporation doing business in the State of California County of Los Angeles. Upon information and belief, IAC, Inc. is the majority owner of Tinder.
- 8. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that each of the Defendants was, at all times herein mentioned, the agent, employee, partner and/or representative of one or more of the remaining Defendants and was acting within the course and scope of such relationship. Plaintiff is further informed and believes that each of the Defendants herein gave consent to, ratified and authorized the acts alleged herein to each of the remaining Defendants.

2

3

4

5

6

7

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

24

25

26

27

28

9. The true names and capacities of Defendants named herein as Does 1 through 20, inclusive, whether individual, corporate, associate or otherwise are unknown to Plaintiff, who therefore sues said Defendants by fictitious names pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 474. Plaintiff will amend this Complaint to show such true names and capacities of Does 1 through 20, inclusive, when they have been determined.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

10. Venue is proper in this judicial district, pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 395(a). Defendants reside and/or transact business in the County of Los Angeles, and are within the jurisdiction of this Court for purposes of service of process.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

- 11. Whitney Wolfe has been a driving force of Tinder from the very beginning. As far back as May 2012, before there even was a Tinder, Wolfe was a key player on the team that produced the wildly successful mobile dating app. Along with co-founders, Sean Rad, Christopher Gulczynski, Jonathan Badeen, and Joe Munoz, Wolfe had been part of a fledgling company working at the IAC-funded incubator, Hatch Labs. While the group was initially working on a customer loyalty rewards app called Cardify, the team soon began to explore the possibility of developing an app to facilitate connections with people in the users' geographic vicinity out of a prototype that Joe Munoz had built during a hack-a-thon. They called the app "Matchbox."
- 12. In the July to August 2012 time period, while the Matchbox prototype was undergoing further design, the company, including CEO Sean Rad, continued to focus on Cardify. That might have been the end of the road for the Matchbox app, but Ms. Wolfe quickly saw its potential and began aggressively lobbying Mr. Rad to shift the focus of the group away from the Cardify app, and towards the app that would eventually become the Tinder app. In or about July 2012, while in a car with Mr. Rad, Ms. Wolfe argued that they should "put Cardify to bed" and really focus on Matchbox. She explained her marketing plan of taking the app to various colleges and increasing its user base through appealing to students. She argued that the

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

24

25

26

27

28

app was going to be a phenomenal success if marketed properly. Rad eventually agreed that she could pitch it to the team and see if they were interested.

- 13. At first, other members of the founding group resisted the pivot toward Tinder, but Wolfe's persistence prevailed. Per Mr. Rad's suggestion, Ms. Wolfe presented her marketing plan to the other Cardify employees, Mr. Gulczynski, Mr. Badeen and Mr. Munoz. Mr. Rad was also in attendance at the meeting. As confirmed in texts from Mr. Gulczynksi, everyone in the group was impressed with Ms. Wolfe's vision, and they encouraged her to follow through with her college campus marketing plan to see if the product had any future. Justin Mateen, who would later be hired as Tinder's Chief Marketing Officer and go on to sexually harass Ms. Wolfe, was not an employee or part of the group at this time and played no role in the meeting in which Ms. Wolfe sold her marketing strategy to the remaining members of the co-founder team.
- 14. At around this same time, it occurred to the group that the Matchbox name was potentially problematic in that it was similar to "match," and IAC wholly owned the dating website/app, Match.com. Match.com also provided HR services to Tinder, and CEO Rad reported to Match.com CEO, Sam Yagan. Because Mr. Gulczynski had designed a flame as the logo for the new company, renaming efforts were focused on names that could take advantage of the existing artwork. Mr. Rad proposed to call it Tender but Ms. Wolfe argued that Tender was too romantic. She suggested "Tinder" because tinder helps to light a flame, which had obvious dating analogues.
- 15. On September 14, 2012, the day of her flight to Southern Methodist University (SMU) to unveil the newly-named Tinder app, Ms. Wolfe stopped in to visit Alexa Mateen, who at the time, was an intern/summer employee at Tinder. Ms. Wolfe saw Justin Mateen, Alexa's older brother, and told him that she was on her way to Texas to launch the new Tinder app. Mr. Mateen, a long-time friend of Mr. Rad who had several on-going projects with him, told her that Mr. Rad had invited him to him join Tinder on a two-month contract. Ms. Wolfe was enthusiastic to have someone else on board to work on the Tinder marketing push.
- 16. Those first campus marketing blitzes to SMU and then the University of Utah were extremely successful. Ms. Wolfe took the user count from around a couple of hundred

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

24

25

26

27

28

///

users (consisting mainly of friends of the team and test users) to over 1500. The group quickly abandoned Cardify to work exclusively on Tinder. Simply put, without Ms. Wolfe's aggressive lobbying on behalf of the Tinder prototype, and without her remarkably effective marketing campaign, there would likely have been no Tinder --- at least not on the scale it exists at today. Joe Munoz, who developed the app, wrote to Ms. Wolfe: "I credit you 100% with the growth of Tinder and I think that sending you around the US to visit sororities was absolutely the best investment we could possibly have made on the marketing side."

- 17. Things went well at the new company. Tinder was meeting with unprecedented success --- in no small part due to the marketing efforts of Ms. Wolfe. The app was starting to take off in ways that were drawing lots of positive attention to the startup.
- 18. During this time, Ms. Wolfe was routinely held out as the face of the company. In or about November 2012, following an internal meeting where the company addressed for the first time co-founder status, Ms. Wolfe was officially designated, "co-founder." Thereafter, her business cards and her email signature block both contained this designation. See, e.g., exemplar Tinder business card and Tinder email from Ms. Wolfe attached hereto as Exhibit 1. Her cofounder status is also confirmed in texts from Mr. Rad dated January 4, 2013 (attached hereto as Exhibit 2).
- 19. Justin Mateen joined Tinder as Chief Marketing Officer, a position that made him Ms. Wolfe's direct supervisor. Within two months after he became an employee, in November 2012, Mr. Mateen began pursuing a romantic relationship with Ms. Wolfe. On or about November 11, 2012, Mr. Mateen asked Ms. Wolfe to come to his house because he was very upset about an ex-girlfriend. When Ms. Wolfe declined to do so, Mr. Mateen became irritated, telling her that she would do it for her "other boss," Sean, and that if she did not meet him he would be very upset with her. Ms. Wolfe eventually agreed to meet with Mr. Mateen. When she did so, he expressed that he had strong feelings for her and was interested in pursuing a romantic relationship. However, the two would not start officially dating until February 2013, as Mr. Mateen made it clear he was not ready for a monogamous relationship.

2

3

4

5

6

7

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

24

25

26

27

28

20. In early 2013, Ms. Wolfe began doing more and more press interviews and features on behalf of Tinder. In these interviews and articles she was held out as a co-founder of Tinder. Ms. Wolfe had spearheaded the app's national college launch. She had honed in on female influencers on social media channels like Instagram, which had been instrumental in making Tinder "cool" and socially acceptable for many women who had once been hesitant to use dating apps. Tinder, in turn, was lauded for breaking the notoriously male-dominated startup mold in that it had a woman among its co-founders. Examples of articles in which Ms. Wolfe is held out as a Tinder co-founder and/or in which Tinder mines positive press from the fact that it has a female co-founder include articles in The Wire ("This acceptance might have something to do with the fact that unlike every other hook-up app out there, which were birthed by men, as Ann Friedman notes in The New Yorker, one of its four founders, Whitney Wolfe, is a woman"), Elle Magazine, Marie Claire and Harper's Bazaar. (See screenshot of Harper's Bazaar article titled attached hereto as Exhibit 3).

- 21. However, even then there were gender-based inconsistencies in how the company presented itself. When Tinder-related articles appeared in more traditional business outlets, Wolfe's name was often nowhere to be seen. When she would ask why only her name of the five founders was absent they would tell her "you're a girl." They stated that they couldn't include her name in the business press, because it "makes the company look like it was an accident." According to Mr. Mateen "a girl founder," who at the time was 24, devalued the company. They also said five founders looked like "too many cooks in the kitchen." Given their misogyny, it is not surprising that the sole female on the team was the one who was excluded from the business press.
- 22. Ms. Wolfe turned her attention to the overseas market, and drafted an international marketing plan. She hired, trained, managed, and motivated the team that would launch Tinder in various overseas markets, and she provided the marketing ideas that made Tinder so explosive in the United Kingdom, in France, in Germany, in Spain, and in Italy.
- 23. On April 22, 2013, in recognition of her instrumental role in the founding of the company and its subsequent success, Ms. Wolfe received a stock option grant in Tinder. The

2

3

4

5

6

7

9

10

11

12

13

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

24

25

26

27

28

vesting schedule provided for 25% vesting after six months (that is, October 1, 2013), and the remaining 75% would vest in six equal installments every six months thereafter.

- 24. Despite the success of Tinder, Ms. Wolfe's relationship with Mr. Mateen was not going well. He grew to be verbally controlling and abusive in the relationship. He accused her of destroying his power at the company because she had a title similar to his --- Ms. Wolfe's title was "VP and Co-Founder," while Mr. Mateen's title was "CMO and Co-Founder." They broke up several times in the months following September 2013, during which time Mr. Mateen aggressively directed his anger stemming from the failure of the relationship towards Ms. Wolfe.
- 25. Also about this time, specifically in early-November of 2013, Mr. Mateen and Mr. Rad informed Ms. Wolfe that they were removing her "co-founder" designation. Mr. Mateen told Ms. Wolfe that the reason she could no longer hold herself out as a co-founder was that she was a 24-year old "girl" with little experience. Once again he said that holding her out as a cofounder "makes the company look like a joke" and "devalues the company." Mr. Mateen tried to justify the situation by saying "Facebook and Snapchat don't have girl founders, it just makes it look like Tinder was some accident." Further, as Mr. Rad informed Ms. Wolfe, IAC would not let her be publicly recognized as a co-founder.
- 26. Mr. Mateen went on to say that he didn't want boys trying to date Ms. Wolfe due to her co-founder status, and that being a female co-founder of Tinder was "slutty" because it is an app people use "to hook up." When Ms. Wolfe protested the overtly discriminatory nature of this treatment, Mr. Rad and Mr. Mateen informed her that she would accept their decision or she would be fired.
- 27. Against her better judgment, and mentally exhausted from defending herself against the abuse that followed from her attempt to move on from the relationship, towards the end of November 2013, Ms. Wolfe gave the relationship with Mr. Mateen another chance. The attempt was short-lived and, aside from a couple of isolated incidents in the next two months, Ms. Wolfe ended the relationship on or about December 12, 2013. Despite her clear intentions in breaking up with him, Mr. Mateen instructed Ms. Wolfe to be "a good girl" and stay away from other men for a period of six months during which time he would evaluate her to determine

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

24

25

26

27

28

whether she was "worthy" of being with him, or whether she was the "slut" that he considered her to be before she met him.

- 28. Ms. Wolfe's refusal to bow to Mr. Mateen's deluded and misogynist attempts to control her, triggered a campaign of sustained, outrageous abuse at Tinder. Mr. Mateen would call Ms. Wolfe "disgusting." He told her not to "look at him with her ugly eyes" in front of Tinder's new Director of Marketing, Josh Metz, on one of his first days of work when Ms. Wolfe was in the process of welcoming him to Tinder. During a marketing brainstorm session with Mr. Metz, Mr. Mateen and Ms. Wolfe, Mr. Mateen told Ms. Wolfe in front of the other employees that she was "a desperate loser" who "jumps from relationship to relationship" and referred to her as a "joke." Following this harrowing meeting, Ms. Wolfe sent Mr. Rad a text informing him of the harassment. Mr. Rad never responded to her.
- 29. Not content with berating her in person, Mr. Mateen also said terrible things about Ms. Wolfe to her co-workers. On one occasion, Mr. Mateen told Rosette Pambakian, head of PR, that Ms. Wolfe was a "fake person" and "just a bad girl." He also told Mr. Rad, Mr. Metz and Ms. Pambakian that he ended the relationship with Ms. Wolfe because she was "an alcoholic who lost control" (Ms. Wolfe has no alcohol dependency issues), and that he needed "to watch her and see if she was a slut when they broke up." This made an already hostile workplace even more difficult, as Ms. Wolfe's colleagues began to treat her in a stand-offish manner. She soon found herself not included in events or meetings that previously she would have been invited to attend.
- 30. In mid-January 2014, at a time when Mr. Rad and Mr. Mateen had numerous work-related disagreements, Mr. Mateen lashed out at Ms. Wolfe, accusing her of "destroying the balance of power" between him and Mr. Rad. He demanded to see her texts to Mr. Rad. When Ms. Wolfe refused, he called her a series of obscene names and threatened that if Ms. Wolfe didn't "fix it" she would suffer consequences. Mr. Mateen's behavior was so outrageous that an onlooker from an apartment above the street directly behind Tinder's offices where the argument took place intervened urging him to stop.
- While CEO Rad did acknowledge that "Justin is nuts" when Ms. Wolfe once again 31. complained to him, he would ultimately either ignore her pleas for help or call her a dramatic or emotional girl. Mr. Rad also told her if she was unable to "disengage" it would be her fault, not Mr. Mateen's.

- 32. Mr. Mateen did not limit his abuse to his in-person, workplace encounters with Ms. Wolfe. He subjected her to a barrage of aggressive, angry texts in which Mr. Mateen berated her for, among other things, possibly talking to another man ("I will shit on him in life.... He can enjoy my left overs") (attached hereto as Exhibit 4), for speaking to Muslim men while she was on family vacation in Aspen ("You prefer to social climb middle aged Muslim pigs that stand for nothing.") (attached hereto as Exhibit 5), even for being friendly with another girl who he referred to as a "liberal lying desperate slut." (Attached hereto as Exhibit 6). He even went so far as to threaten Ms. Wolfe that if she ever "hurt his pride" --- alluding to her being with other men or having a new boyfriend ---, he would fire her. (Attached hereto as Exhibit 7). Mr. Mateen's outrageously abusive behavior continued in one form or another throughout the remainder of Ms. Wolfe's employment with Tinder.
- impacted Tinder business opportunities. In or about January 2014, Ms. Wolfe was contacted by the Creative Director of an influential fashion and lifestyle blog. This Creative Director wanted to do a feature on Ms. Wolfe in her role as a young female co-founder of a very hot dating app startup. Ms. Wolfe immediately recognized the marketing potential of such a piece --- which would be read by large numbers of young, trend-setting women. Rather than welcoming the free publicity, Mr. Mateen became incensed and claimed that the Creative Director was "disrespecting him" by doing a feature on Ms. Wolfe (his ex-girlfriend) and not focusing on other women, including a female assistant, in the story. He said that the Creative Director wanted to have sex with Ms. Wolfe because of her co-founder title. He became so angry that he threatened to "fuck" the Creative Director's wife, and said that he would "be a handyman for my backyard and will be on a leash." In the end, tired of being attacked by Mr. Mateen, Ms. Wolfe told the Creative Director that he shouldn't come to the office at that time.
- 34. Mr. Mateen continued to engage in threatening and abusive behavior. He bombarded Ms. Wolfe with harassing and increasingly frightening texts in which Mr. Mateen

2

3

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

24

25

26

27

28

threatened her with termination if he was unable to come to terms with her no longer wanting to date him ("the effect will be that ur gone"), in which he ignored her pleas to stop berating her during work hours ("[y]ou're effecting my work environment. I am trying to do my job and this is very out of control,") and in which he obsessively grills her about her romantic life even when she makes it clear that they "are not together" and he has "no right to [her] personal life." She begs him to "please stop.... You are harassing me." See texts between Mr. Mateen and Ms. Wolfe from this time period attached hereto as Exhibit 8.

- 35. The abusive atmosphere at Tinder was beyond the pale and becoming unbearable for Ms. Wolfe, as it would for any reasonable person. As noted above, on multiple occasions she spoke to Mr. Rad to see if he would intervene to end the abuse or, at a minimum, change the reporting structure so that she was no longer directly supervised by Mr. Mateen. Mr. Rad would simply accuse Ms. Wolfe of being "dramatic," or "annoying" and ignore her complaints. On one occasion, CEO Rad told Ms. Wolfe that he and Mr. Mateen had agreed that even though Mr. Mateen was still upset about the failure of their relationship, they were going to allow her to stay at Tinder.
- 36. During a meeting with Ms. Wolfe and Mr. Mateen, Mr. Rad told Ms. Wolfe that if she and Mr. Mateen couldn't get along, it would be Ms. Wolfe who would be fired. Mr. Rad told her that it was her job to "keep Justin calm." If she couldn't do that she would be fired.
- 37. When Ms. Wolfe finally told Mr. Mateen that she would go to HR to file a formal complaint, Mr. Mateen threatened to fire her if she did so. When Ms. Wolfe threatened to speak to a lawyer, Mr. Mateen told her that it was a threat he would not tolerate.
- 38. Throughout all of this appalling behavior, IAC, the majority owner of Tinder and Ms. Wolfe's joint employer, completely abdicated any supervisory role over its Tinder employees. That Mr. Rad thought little of IAC is evident in at least one obscene text he sent to Ms. Wolfe in the summer of 2013, depicting IAC Chairman Barry Diller as a penis.
- 39. By the spring of 2013, Mr. Rad was dating Alexa Dell, the 20-year old daughter of an iconic technology figure. Ms. Wolfe soon came to consider Mr. Rad's new girlfriend a friend and confidant. In a number of text communications between the two young women at about this

2

3

4

5

6

7

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

24

25

26

27

28

time, Ms. Wolfe sought her advice as to what to do about the on-going harassment, going so far as to say that the abuse was unbearable: "[t]he shit he says when he talks makes me wanna kill myself he's so low and nasty I might quit." See texts between Ms. Wolfe and Ms. Dell attached hereto as Exhibit 9.

- 40. At a company party in Malibu on April 6, 2014, Ms. Wolfe noticed that Mr. Mateen was unwilling to say "hello" to her, while he eagerly greeted Ms. Wolfe's friend, Kate Wilson, who accompanied her to the event. When she eventually asked him what was wrong, Mr. Mateen responded: "You're a whore." He accused her of being with a boy and insisted he knew all about what her "disgusting self had been up to." He said this in front of Mr. Rad. He went on call her "a gold digger," and "a disease" and "disgusting." As Ms. Wolfe began to head toward the exit, she was accosted by Mr. Rad's guest at the party who spat in her face. This was witnessed by Ms. Wilson. Mr. Mateen went on to ask Ms. Wilson if it were true, referring to Ms. Wolfe and her possible involvement with another man. Mr. Mateen's younger brother repeatedly accused Ms. Wolfe of not being "a good girl."
- 41. Shocked, humiliated and deeply shaken, Ms. Wolfe told Mr. Rad that she really wanted to speak to him and find a solution for her at work. She was not able to work for someone who called her a whore, let alone at a company party and in front of the CEO.
- 42. In the communications that followed over the next twenty-four hours, Mr. Rad bullied Ms. Wolfe into "resigning." He told her that "things were going to get ugly." Ms. Wolfe, beaten down by the abuse and fearing for her reputation if she was fired ostensibly for performance reasons, texted Mr. Rad that she would leave peacefully if she could get a reasonable amount of severance and her vested equity. However, Mr. Rad rejected that. When Ms. Wolfe requested the opportunity to talk with Mr. Rad about how much longer she would continue working at Tinder, Mr. Rad responded that "Your employment continuing is not likely an option at this point." See texts between Ms. Wolfe and Mr. Rad attached hereto as Exhibit 10.
- 43. In the days that followed, Ms. Wolfe, completely beaten down by the many months of outrageous abuse she had suffered at Tinder, submitted a resignation letter that explicitly cited the abusive treatment as the reason for her no longer working at the company.

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

24

25

26

Mr. Rad, fully recognizing the danger that would follow from such a letter becoming public, or at least known to IAC, instructed Ms. Wolfe to draft a second letter that omitted this basis for her leaving the company.

A few weeks after Ms. Wolfe's termination, she met with IAC's Sam Yagan at a 44. Starbucks in Dallas. (As noted above, Mr. Yagan is the CEO of Defendant Match.com, another on-line dating site that is wholly-owned by IAC). Ms. Wolfe described some of the harassment and discrimination she had suffered at Tinder, including having her "co-founder" status stripped away because she is a "girl," being called a "whore" by her boss in front of the CEO, and, ultimately, her retaliatory termination. By the time she was finished relating the shocking history of some of the abuse she had suffered at Tinder --- a company owned by IAC --- she was in tears. Mr. Yagan was unmoved. Telling her he didn't feel compelled to do anything in response to Ms. Wolfe's complaints, Mr. Yagan explained that this didn't bother him: "I can still sleep at night."

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Discrimination in Violation Of Cal. Gov't Code § 12940(a))

Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference Paragraphs 1 through 44 of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein and for a cause of action alleges as follows:

- 45. At all times herein mentioned, California's Fair Employment and Housing Act ("FEHA"), Cal. Government Code § 12940 et seq., was in full force and effect and fully binding upon Defendants. Plaintiff was a member of a group protected by the statute, in particular section 12940(a), prohibiting discrimination in employment based on sex.
- 46. The termination of Plaintiff's employment by Defendants constitutes discrimination based on sex and violated Government Code § 12940(a).
- 47. As a direct, foreseeable and proximate result of Defendants' unlawful actions, Plaintiff has suffered and continues to suffer substantial losses in earnings, equity and other employment benefits and has incurred other economic losses.

27 ///

28

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

24

25

26

27

28

- 48. As a further direct, foreseeable and proximate result of Defendants' unlawful actions, Plaintiff has suffered emotional distress, humiliation, shame, and embarrassment all to the Plaintiff's damage in an amount to be proven at time of trial.
- 49. Defendants committed the acts herein despicably, maliciously, fraudulently, and oppressively, with the wrongful intention of injuring Plaintiff, from an improper and evil motive amounting to malice, and in conscious disregard of the rights or safety of Plaintiff and others. Plaintiff is thus entitled to recover punitive damages from Defendants in an amount according to proof.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Sex Harassment in Violation Of Cal. Gov't Code § 12940(a) & (j))

Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference Paragraphs 1 through 44 of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein, and for a cause of action alleges as follows:

- 50. At all times herein mentioned, California's Fair Employment and Housing Act ("FEHA"), Cal. Gov't Code §§ 12900, et seq., was in full force and effect and was fully binding upon Defendants. Specifically, §§ 12940(j) prohibits an employer from sexually harassing an employee on the basis of her sex.
- 51. The actions of Justin Mateen, Chief Marketing Officer of Tinder, towards Plaintiff, his direct subordinate, as described herein, created a hostile sexual environment which materially altered Plaintiff's working conditions and which constitutes sexual harassment in violation of Gov't Code § 12940(j)(1).
- 52. As a direct, foreseeable and proximate result of Defendant's unlawful actions, Plaintiff has suffered economic damages including back pay, front pay, equity, benefits and other compensation.
- 53. As a direct, foreseeable, and proximate result of Defendants' unlawful actions, Plaintiff has suffered emotional distress, humiliation, shame, and embarrassment, all to the Plaintiff's damage in an amount to be proven at the time of trial.
- 54. Defendants committed the acts herein despicably, maliciously, fraudulently, and oppressively, with the wrongful intention of injuring Plaintiff, from an improper and evil motive

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

24

25

26

27

28 amounting to malice, and in conscious disregard of the rights and safety of plaintiff and others. Plaintiff is thus entitled to recover punitive damages from Defendants in an amount according to proof.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(Failure to Take All Reasonable Steps to Prevent Sexual Harassment in Violation of Cal. Gov't Code § 12940(k))

Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference Paragraphs 1 through 44 of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein, and for a cause of action alleges as follows:

- 55. At all times herein mentioned, California's Fair Employment and Housing Act ("FEHA"), Cal. Gov't Code §§ 12900, et seq., was in full force and effect and was fully binding upon Defendant. Specifically, § 12940(k) makes it an unlawful employment practice for an employer to fail to take all reasonable steps necessary to prevent sexual harassment from occurring.
- 56. As described above, Tinder's CEO, Sean Rad received multiple complaints about the sexually harassing behavior of CMO, Justin Mateen, but did nothing about his behavior. IAC senior executive, Sam Yagan was informed by Plaintiff of Mr. Mateen's behavior and Tinder's discriminatory treatment of her yet failed to take any action. Defendants failed to adequately investigate Mr. Mateen's behavior when warned about him, failed to take all reasonable steps to prevent him from harassing Plaintiff and did not investigate or discipline him in response to Plaintiff's complaint. Defendants' failed to take all reasonable steps necessary to prevent harassment from occurring in violation of § 12940(k).
- As a direct, foreseeable and proximate result of Defendants' unlawful actions, 57. Plaintiff has suffered and continue to suffer losses in earnings, equity and other employment benefits and has incurred other economic losses.
- 58. As a direct, foreseeable, and proximate result of Defendants' unlawful actions, Plaintiff has suffered substantial emotional distress, humiliation, shame, and embarrassment, all to the Plaintiff's damage in an amount to be proven at the time of trial.
- 59. Defendants committed the acts herein despicably, maliciously, fraudulently, and oppressively, with the wrongful intention of injuring Plaintiff, from an improper and evil motive

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

24

25

26 amounting to malice, and in conscious disregard of the rights and safety of Plaintiff and others. Plaintiff is thus entitled to recover punitive damages from Defendants in an amount according to proof.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Retaliation in Violation of Cal. Gov't Code § 12940(h))

Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference Paragraphs 1 through 44 of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein, and for a cause of action alleges as follows:

- 60. At all times herein mentioned, California's Fair Employment and Housing Act ("FEHA"), Cal. Gov't Code §§ 12900, et seq., was in full force and effect and was fully binding upon Defendant. Specifically, § 12940(h) makes it an unlawful employment practice for an employer to discriminate against any person because the person has opposed any practices forbidden under this part.
- 61. On multiple occasions, Plaintiff opposed the sexually harassing behavior of CMO Mateen to both Mr. Mateen and to CEO Rad. In response to her complaints, Defendants terminated the employment of Plaintiff.
- 62. As a direct, foreseeable and proximate result of Defendants' unlawful actions, Plaintiff has suffered and continues to suffer losses in earnings, equity and other employment benefits and has incurred other economic losses.
- 63. As a direct, foreseeable, and proximate result of Defendants' unlawful actions, Plaintiff has suffered substantial emotional distress, humiliation, shame, and embarrassment, all to the Plaintiff's damage in an amount to be proven at the time of trial.
- 64. Defendants committed the acts herein despicably, maliciously, fraudulently, and oppressively, with the wrongful intention of injuring Plaintiff, from an improper and evil motive amounting to malice, and in conscious disregard of the rights and safety of Plaintiff and others. Plaintiff is thus entitled to recover punitive damages from Defendants in an amount according to proof.

27

28

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

24

25

26

27

28

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress)

Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference Paragraphs 1 through 44 of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein and for a cause of action alleges as follows:

- 65. The conduct of Defendants' senior executives as set forth above was so extreme and outrageous that it exceeded the boundaries of human decency and was beyond pale of conduct tolerated in a civilized society. This conduct was intended to cause severe emotional distress, or was done in reckless disregard of the probability of causing severe emotional distress.
- 66. As an actual and proximate result of Defendants' wrongful conduct, Plaintiff has suffered and continues to suffer severe and continuous humiliation, emotional distress, and physical and mental pain and anguish, all to her damage in an amount according to proof at the time of trial.
- 67. Defendants committed the acts alleged herein maliciously, fraudulently, and oppressively, with the wrongful intention of injuring Plaintiff, and acted with an improper and evil motive amounting to malice and in conscious disregard of Plaintiff's rights. Because the acts taken toward Plaintiff were carried out by Defendants acting in a deliberate, cold, callous, and intentional manner in order to injure and damage Plaintiff, she is entitled to recover punitive damages from Defendants in an amount according to proof.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Defamation)

Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference Paragraphs 1 through 44 of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein and for a cause of action alleges as follows:

68. Defendants caused to be published false and unprivileged communications tending directly to injure Plaintiff in her business and professional reputation. More specifically, Defendants made untrue statements regarding the founding of Tinder that deliberately omitted Plaintiff's role in the founding and growth of the company, including, but not necessarily limited to when Sean Rad related the history of Tinder for a piece in the on-line publication, TechCrunch entitled "A Brief History of Tinder," posted on June 6, 2014, where he omitted any mention of

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

24

25

26

27

28

Ms. Wolfe, notwithstanding that she helped found the company, suggested the name, wrote the initial marketing plan, and signed up the important initial subscribers, greatly contributing to the company's success. In addition, defendants chief marketing officer, Justin Mateen, falsely accused plaintiff of being a "slut" and "whore."

- 69. Defendants' defamatory statements were designed and intended to diminish Plaintiff's reputation and injure Plaintiff in her good name and employment.
- 70. As a proximate result of the defamatory statements made by Defendant as aforesaid, Plaintiff has suffered injury to her business and professional reputation, and further has suffered and continues to suffer embarrassment, humiliation, and anguish, all to her damage in an amount according to proof.
- Defendants committed the acts alleged herein maliciously, fraudulently, and 71. oppressively, with the wrongful intention of injuring Plaintiff, and acted with an improper and evil motive amounting to malice and in conscious disregard of Plaintiff's rights. Because the acts taken toward Plaintiff were carried out by Defendants acting in a deliberate, cold, callous, and intentional manner in order to injure and damage Plaintiff, she is entitled to recover punitive damages from Defendants in an amount according to proof.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Unfair Business Practices in Violation of California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200-17208)

Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference Paragraphs 1 through 44 of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein and for a cause of action alleges as follows:

- 72. The foregoing conduct, as alleged, violates the California Unfair Competition Law ("UCL"), Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200 et seq. Section 17200 of the Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code prohibits unfair competition by prohibiting, inter alia, any unlawful or unfair business acts or practices.
- 73. Throughout the course of Plaintiff's employment, Defendants committed acts of unfair competition, as defined by the UCL, by, among other things, engaging in the acts and practices described herein, including but not limited to discriminating against her on the basis of her gender, retaliating against her for complaining about harassment and discrimination, and

2

3

4

5

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

24

25

26

27

28 defaming her with regards to her role in the founding and growth of Tinder. Defendants' conduct as herein alleged has damaged the Plaintiff by wrongfully denying her earned wages and equity, and therefore was substantially injurious to the Plaintiff.

- 74. Defendants' course of conduct, acts, and practices in violation of the California laws mentioned in the above paragraph constitute a separate and independent violation of the UCL. Defendants' conduct described herein violates the policy or spirit of such laws or otherwise significantly threatens or harms competition.
- 75. Plaintiff seeks disgorgement in the amount of the respective unpaid wages and equity and such other legal and equitable relief from Defendants' unlawful and willful conduct as the Court deems just and proper.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants as follows:

- 1. For compensatory damages, including but not limited to, lost back pay, plus interest, lost fringe benefits and future lost earnings and fringe benefits, lost equity, damages for emotional distress and pain and suffering, according to proof allowed by law;
- 2. For punitive damages allowed by law;
- 3. For restitution and/or disgorgement;
- 4. For an award to Plaintiff of costs of suit incurred herein and reasonable attorneys' fees;
- 5. For an award of prejudgment and post-judgment interest; and
- 6. For an award to Plaintiff of such other and further legal and equitable relief as the Court deems just and proper.

DATED: June 30, 2014 Respectfully submitted,

RUDY, EXELROD, ZIEFF & LOWE, LLP

By: JOHN T. MULLAN

Attorneys for Plaintiff WHITNEY WOLFE

RUDY EXELROD ZIEFF & LOWE LLP

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Plaintiff hereby requests trial by jury.

DATED: June 30, 2014

Respectfully submitted,

RUDY, EXELROD, ZIEFF & LOWE, LLP

By:

JOHN T. MULLAN Attorneys for Plaintiff WHITNEY WOLFE

PH (415) 434-9800 | FX (415) 434-0513 | www.rezlaw.com 351 CALIFORNIA STREET, SUITE 700 SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA 94104

EXHIBIT 1

Whitney Wolfe Co-Founder / VP of Marketing

whitney@gotinder.com 801.860.9740 From: Whitney Wolfe <whitney@gotinder.com>

Subject: marketing updates

Date: July 15, 2013 at 7:49:43 PM CDT To: Sean Rad <sean@gotinder.com> last week:

- tinder australia launch party

- UK/France guerilla marketing efforts went into full force
- SUITS
- Events in UK / France / Israel

next couple weeks:

- -UK tinder water fight in hyde park with press from major outlets
- -VIP room St. Tropez major blow out party with well known DJ
- -Street art on a major wall of London

Whitney Wolfe Co-Founder, Director of Marketing

tinder

EXHIBIT 2

Messages

Sean Rad

Edit

Ok love ya haha

Jan 4, 2013, 3:47 PM

You still are cofounder you shit

Stop

I put Chris and Jon in te article bc they are emotional. Are you too?

And I told you that u could make your title even in FB to cofounder

Ill talk to you tomorrow uve really rubbed me the wrong way today

Not going back on my work

Shut it. I'll come get you

iMessage

Send

•••• Verizon LTE

4:58 PM

74%

Messages (1) Sean

Contact

Ok. See you soon

So what do I say regarding tinder? I'm director of marketing and a co founder? I have to tell the producer via email I'm answering some questions for her

I told Justin I'm going to "faint" right after I say "this new amazing app tinder"

So it goes viral and blonde that fainted on a google hangout

Lol

Yes u can say that

Message

Send

EXHIBIT 3

HOME

LATEST

FASHION BEAUTY CELEBRITIES VIDEO LIFESTYLE

< HOME / < THE LATEST / HOW TO TINDER, BY THE WOMAN WHO INVENTED TINDER

HOW TO TINDER, BY THE WOMAN WHO INVENTED TINDER

MERCURY MUSIC PRIZE NOMINEES

by Emma Zacharia / 30 October 2013 | [6] comment(s)

add comments

It's no longer enough to be witty, effervescent and profoundly magnetic - these days, all the single ladies must be tech-savvy too. As Darwin keeps telling us, the laws of evolution are such that to survive we must adapt. So it's out with nonchalant hair flicks and coquettish, lash fluttering and in with the perfectly-staged selfic. Improving Instagram filters are your armour, texted acronyms your amorous poetry ...

Feeling lost? Yes, so are we. Here to help, Bazaar calls in the illuminating wisdom of Tinder vice president, Whitney Wolfe. An online matchmaking app, Tinder calls upon our primal urge to decide if someone is 'hot or not'. Their model is simple and effective: Tinder matches you to users close by with mutual interests, and you swine left or right depending on whether you think they're attractive, or not. With over two hundred

EXHIBIT 4

Stop justin. Were at work.

Ur heartless

UI regret acting this way once my tenderness for you wears off from ur behavior

Ok Justin I'm sorry you're so upset. We are broken up and this is inappropriate.

So easy for you to move on. I'm shocked but at least I have my answer

Please stop threatening me and get back to work.

Go talk to ur 26 year old fucking accomplished nobody

I will shit on him in life

o Message

Send

QWERTYUIOP

ASDFGHJKL

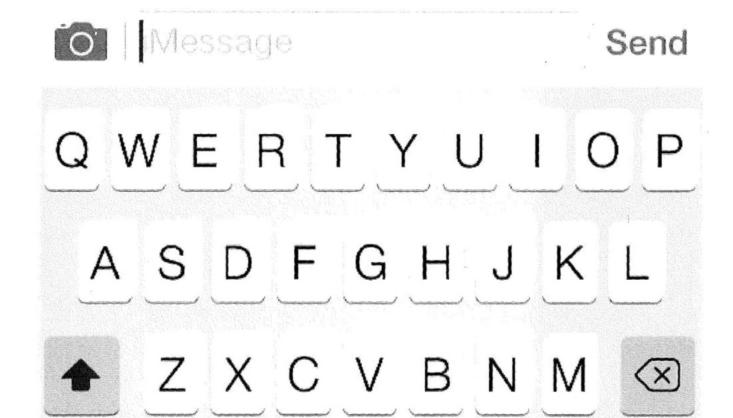

Let's see if that homo can make money without daddy. I have 5 wins under my belt and in hungry as fuck

And I'm the best father

The best husband

Hagsgagahaha so pathetic I even imagined a life w u. I actually thought u would be a good mother and wife. I have horrible judgement. He can enjoy my left overs.

l was too just dealing w ur a use

Delivered

Yea fuck u

Ur abuse

EXHIBIT 5

11:35 AM

67%

Messages (4) Justin

Contact

Without fail

I won't engage when ur attacking and accusing

If u want to be sweet and loving I'm happy to respond

And hung out w Muslims that are not loyal who tried to do shady shut to me

Last night u grouped u with liz

Omg stop

11:13 AM

74%

Messages (2) Justin

Contact

together

I don't vacation w half boyfriends

But it could have helped lead us there

I understand. You prefer to social climb middle aged Muslim pigs that stand for nothing.

> Ya exactly justin you bailed it

> > Nailed

-

11:12 AM

74%

Messages (2) Justin

Contact

friend

Tell me what u want

I'm seriously sorry you don't understand

> U don't want me to talk to people?

No I don't want you to talk to middle aged Muslim men who fly out gold diggers and flirted with my ex gf

And were so bad that their other best friend had to tell

EXHIBIT 6

Contact

Yea well look how much u

How do u think I feel

I hate REDACTED

Liberal lying desperate slut

Anyway ul be fine. Don't worry. Maybe I'll see I at airport before my flight for a hug

I've been depressed for a couple months but especially last 3 weeks

Not depressed but close

EXHIBIT 7

+ =

11:40 AM

64%

✓ Messages (4) Justin

Contact

I have to go now

U really brought up Fahad?

And a lawyer

Who the fuck are you?

U said I would be fired if I hurt your pride

How fake r u

Wow

I do need a lawyer

Ur threatening me

I dare you to do that

Fuenday

iMessage

EXHIBIT 8

Messages (4) Justin

Contact

TIUIT YOU OF AITYOFIE

Thank you I hope so

Yes if I can not get a long with you and it starts to effect my work too much not bc of me but the effect will be that ur gone

It's a fact

You always knew that

And if you threaten me I will bark back like a psycho so u should know better.

It's sad sad that U said that and I need to tell u not to fuck with me

Лessade

27 of 62

I have to go I don't respond to harassment. I'll take this whole convo to sean if you continue

What do you think sean will do? Stop threatening me.

He will hopefully be a man and tell you to stop harassing me

Live with yourself knowing you are a liar.

That's bad enough

Don't text me unless you can be honest or send me this simple text "I did not

31 of 62

this simple text "I did not talk to him after the 4 hour convo".

You are a true coward for not even being able to admit u lied. Being a liar is one thing but not admitting to ur lies are even worse. I'm so happy I know the truth now.

You're effecting my work environment. I am trying to do my job and this is very out of control.

Please don't do this during work hours

No worries. It's done. I'm free from the liar.

Contact

dad made me promise to set a boundary and I'm coinc to do it

This is not about your dad please do not involve him.

If I find out u lied to me about this we will have a problem. I am trying to trust you.

Justin- this is turning into harassment again.

Stop.

I am asking you kindly not to threaten me

You said after the 4 hour talk two weeks ago u

Contact

Justun Eidne: Is imminenter harasanremi agam

Stop

Hamn acking you kindly mot to threaten me

You said after the 4 hour talk two weeks ago u never spoke again and that there is absolutely nothing going on

If that's true than there is nothing to be worried about. I'm not threatening you at all.

You just threatened me "we will have a problem"

That's a threat

Contact

there is absolutely nothing going on

If that's true than there is nothing to be worried about. I'm not threatening you at all.

> You just threatened me "we will have a problem"

> > Thrait's a threat

I need to be able to trust u

Yes on a personal level

But ur saying that ur not lying

U swore

Message

Seno

Contact

Yes on a personal level

But u r saying that ur not lying

U swore

I need to be more clear. We are not together. You have no right to my personal life. I answered your question, yet you continue to ask the same thing 100 times over. Then you threaten me. Unacceptable

Just be honest with me either way. I don't want to revisit this. I feel like ur being dishonest.

Contact

eophunus (a askalata symmeth dhilateil 00 dhilas asvet dhila van Thiosteil and Lligheagailla

Just be honest with me either way, I don't want to revisit this. I feel like ur being dishonest.

Why would u say nothing was romantic in aspen. That implies that afterwards something changed and that u r talking to him

We will not revisit this. I answered you and I will not do it again

What if I told u I know ur

Message

Contact

being dishonest.

Why would u say nothing was romantic in aspen. That implies that afterwards something changed and that u r talking to him

We will not revisit this. I answered you and I will not do it again

What if I told u I know ur lying?

You can tell me whatever you like. I am no longer engaging in this conversation.

I sense it. You are acting

Message

Contact

Your can tell me whatever youlike Farming longer engaging in this conversation.

I sense it. You are acting so weird and if u didn't continue talking to him u would just say just I swear I'm not talking to him. Forget about it I promise u

But ur not saying that to me

> Justin, I'm not giving into your mind control anymore. You don't have a right to "I swear" anymore

> > Please stop this

Back REDACTED

Contact

I'm not talking to him. Forget about it I promise u

But ur not saying that to me

> Justiin, I'm noi giving into your mind control anymore. You don't have a right to "I swear" anymore

> > Please stop this

If I can't trust u it will me difficult to communicate

So ur lying

I feel like you're harassing lm(e)

Admit it

Message

Contact

night to "Lewwar" anymiore

Please step this

If I can't trust u it will me difficult to communicate

So ur lying

I feel like you're harassing me

Admit it

And let's be on one page

It only feels that way if you are being dishonest

> No. I am not. And please stop for the last time. You are harassing me

EXHIBIT 9

8:28 AM

∦ 14% □□

REDACTED

Contact

Tue, Apr 1, 7:21 PM

Can we do a little later?
I'm so stressed out I'm having a big talk w parents

About what I'm going to do if I'm staying or leaving tinder

l can't be around Justin he is unbearable

Ok

What time

8?

Kk

Anyway I can help??

iMessage

常 14% ■ □・

REDACTED

Contact

No I just need to make a choice

Well how soon??

I dunno it's like miserable

He shit he says when we talks makes me wanna kill myself he's so low and nasty I might quit

I wonder if sean would let me keep some of my equity that I haven't vested yet

Cuz I've been there from day one etc

Have u talked to him about

Message

Senc

增 14% €

REDACTED

Contact

mystell he s so low and masty lamight quit

I wonder if sean would let me keep some of my equity that I haven't vested yet

Cuz I've been there from day one etc

Have u talked to him about the Justin stuff???

> I need to talk to him and see . Please don't say a word I wanna talk to him on my own

I'm just not happy there anymore

I think u should at lelast

iMessage

EXHIBIT 10

7:02 AM

0 × 22% 1

✓ Messages (1) Sean

Contact

Can't talk right now...what's up?

Read above you'll understand I'm not coming from a bad place sean. I'm sobbing in bed I want happiness and good for all of us I just want to leave peacefully. I am not suing anyone omg!

Maybe I can go and focus on a new project that you are hands on with too. Who knows. This is what I'm trying to talk about-NOT SUING YOU lol. U don't understand in trying to quit in a professional and good way

7:02 AM

0 × 22%

✓ Messages (1) Sean

Contact

I come in peace. I quit.
Two weeks notice. I just wanna understand if I can have a grave period of pay til/ how much equity I vested etc. This is what I meant by having a talk not a nasty mean talk sean.

Sent as Text Message

*grace

I come in peace. I quit.
Two weeks notice. I just wanna understand if I can have a grave period of pay til/ how much equity I vested etc. This is what I meant by having a talk not a nasty mean talk sean.

I have not involved anything legal at all sean-

iMessage

7:02 AM

② ★ 22% **■

Messages (1) Sean

Contact

anything legal at all sean-I'm not up to anything I just wanna go peacefully and with what I earned

I'm very sorry if I've made you feel otherwise

Would love to have an open and proactive next step talk whenever you're ready.

Email me now saying you're quitting and give me your reason which I presume is because you want to move to Dallas to start a new company

And then what?

Message

•••• Verizon LTE 7:03 AM

© № 22% I

✓ Messages (1) Sean

Contact

And then what?

We can talk tomorrow about the rest

No more texts

Why are you being weird and getting all legal and stuff? What have I done to deserve this?

What happens if I quit

This is scary I've been there for 2 years, this is my job and career and I don't know why you can't talk me through it. I've worked hard and I wanna make sure this is the best decision

Message

7:03 AM

Ø $ 22% **□

✓ Messages (1) Sean

Contact

This is scary I've been there for 2 years, this is my job and career and I don't know why you can't talk me through it. I've worked hard and I wanna make sure this is the best decision

Send me the email and I will prepare your docs for you tomorrow

What do the docs say?

I will talk you through everything tomorrow

> I keep what I've vested but do I get a grace period of pay or what?

7:03 AM

% 22% ■

✓ Messages (1) Sean

Contact

I keep what I've vested but do I get a grace period of pay or what?

l don't know how it works

You will get to keep whatever you have vested as stated in your agreement

There is absolutely no grace period for someone who quits

> Oh ok totally understandable

That is a ridiculous ask

I have never quit before or been fired ever

iMessage

7:03 AM

© 3 22% **□

Messages (1) Sean

Contact

Oh ok totally understandable

That is a ridiculous ask

I have never quit before or been fired ever

You do not get any severance

Email me your resignation letter and I will take it from there

> Well I need to tell my parents first to make sure they will help support me

This is why I wanna talk to u I need to do this not irrationally

iMessage

•••• Verizon LTE 7:03 AM

O 🕸 22% 💷

Messages (1) Sean

Contact

Well I need to tell my parents first to make sure they will help support me

This is why I wanna talk to u I need to do this not irrationally

Dont you get it??

Like I might have to work one more month if my dad won't pay my rent

So could we discuss when exactly I leave tomorrow?

But I'll leave in peace for sure soon

Your employment continuing is not likely an option at this point

ol iMessage

7:03 AM

Ø ∦ 22% **□

Messages (1) Sean

Contact

But I'll leave in peace for sure soon

Your employment continuing is not likely an option at this point

I'm taking off. We can discuss tomorrow.

Are you serious sean?

Send me the letter and I will take it from there

> Why are u treating me like a stranger

> It's hurtful I'm trying to be kind and peaceful

> Just be gentle this is a big

iMessage